25X1 1. During the occupation of Mukden by Soviet troops, Korean political groups and associations were organized, and the following organizations emerged:

The Youth Corps (青年團)
The Korean Emancipation League (解放同盟)
The Independence League (獨立同盟)
The Sino-Soviet-Korean Friendship Association (中蘇韓友好協會)
The Women's Youth Corps (女子青年團)

All these organizations were organized and sponsored by Korean Communists in Mukden and maintained close liaison with the Chinese Communists and the Soviet armies during their occupation of Mukden.

2. The following personalities, all members of the Sino-Soviet-Korean Friendship Association, were the most active political leaders in the other organizations of which they were members:

CH'Ō Il-p'yŏng (車逸平), leader of the Korean Emancipation League; at present in the Tunghua (125-57, 41-41) area.

CHON Nung-il (全能一), leader of the Independence League; at present in North Korea.

CH'OE Min-san (崔民山), chief of the Youth Corps; in the Tunghua area at present.

CH'OE Sun (崔 舜), a member of the Youth Corps; at present in North Korea.

YI Tong-kyun (李東均), a member of the Youth Corps; at present in North Korea.

3. The following personalities were members of the Sino-Soviet-Korean Friendship Association; it is not known whether they were also members of the leagues and groups reported above.

CH'OE Yŏn-sik (崔 東植); at present in Inch'on (126-38, 37-28).
